USPA NEWS - The 500 apartments to be built by the Turkish state in Laç and Thumana will be completed by July of this year.

The Minister of Reconstruction, stated in a conference with the Turkish Minister of Environment and Urbanization that the project is technologically innovative and goes beyond emergency construction.

Minister, Murat Kurum underlined that Albania has always been the focus of President Erdogan, as he said that building houses is a duty for his Albanian brothers.

“We try to stand with our Albanian brothers. We have already provided assistance and we have been able to meet their needs for tents and food.

In addition to urgent demands, President Erdogan has pledged to build 500 housing units to meet housing needs.

We have started this process immediately. The apartments will fit your culture of living and we aim to finish them in 6 months “ said Kurum.

Within this year, the government aims to reconstruct and build housing in rural areas damaged by the November 26 earthquake, as well as repairing damage to schools and health centers.

The reconstruction process is expected to be completed in the spring of 2021 with the creation of new urban neighborhoods in Tirana, Durrës, Kavaja, Kruja and Thumana. According to official data, 10 thousand people are spending the winter in tents.
