Bodyguards Take Stand Against Bullying

Enough Is Enough

Ocean City,MD, 03.09.2022, 07:53 Time

USPA NEWS - On this past weekend community leaders came together over the day to show a group from Forge Youth And Family Academy that they are not alone when it comes to bullying. This is a major topic that has flooded not only the US but around the world. At some point a line needed to be made in the sand. Well on this day it was made and this group of professionals made it clear enough is enough.

The man with the master plan of putting together this great event was none other than celebrity bodyguard Bubba Almony. Almony has a history of giving back to the community that made him who he is today. Over the last few years he has climbed major heights in his life and has been blazing through the newspapers and tv screens sharing his story. On this day he didn't come alone but was joined by the following local heroes: Ocean City Police Department, Maryland State Police and Worcester County Sheriff's Office and multiple branches of the Military U.S. Marine Corps, U.S. Navy, Light Riders OC, OCMD's most beloved community member Al "Hondo" Handy , Senator Mary Beth Carozza, OCPD Chief Buzzuro, Donita Adams Maryland Army National Guard, Alphalion Professional Protection Services L.L.C Owner's David Meek Mill's Bodyguard and business partner Darryl, Pastor Dr. Roxie Dennis for leading us in prayer and Rob and Tara the Founder's of Forge! Being able to be on hand for this great event was priceless and has never been seen before with the magnitude of this movement with everyone working together for this great cause.
