National Unity Day Observed

Tributes paid to Iron Man of India

Devagiri, Anantapur District, Andhra Pradesh, 31.10.2022, 13:38 Time

USPA NEWS - Rich tributes paid to Iron Man of India with the solemn pledge.

Indians at home and abroad celebrate this day as National Unity Day on the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who played a major role in India's political unification.

National Unity Day was celebrated in Devagiri Zilla Parishad High School on Monday. To that extent, the teachers and students reiterated their pledge and paid rich tributes to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the Iron Man of India and the country's first Deputy Prime Minister.

Taking inspiration from the vision of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and the measures he followed for the unity and integrity of the country, the students pledged that they too will do their utmost for the unity, integrity and internal security of the country. The students said that Indians at home and abroad would celebrate this day as National Unity Day on the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who played a major role in India's political unification.

While observing the National Unity Day, the students recited the pledge with patriotic fervour saying that they strive hard to spread this message of unity and integrity among the fellow countrymen.

Incharge Head Master Anand, Hindi Pandit Jayaleela, English Teacher Mercy Vijayaleela, Telugu Pandit Venkatanarayana, PET Rajesh and others participated in this program.
