Beat: News

Intellectuals Call For Social Movements Against SC Classification

Call To Build Social Movements

Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, India, 16.08.2024, 18:01 Time

USPA NEWS - In a review meeting held at Hotel Ridhika Inn in Suryapet, intellectuals and community leaders gathered to discuss the recent Supreme Court verdict on SC classification. The meeting, spearheaded by national and state leaders of the Mala community, called for a united social movement and legal challenge to oppose the classification, urging widespread participation from all segments of society.

Call to build social movements

G Chennaiah, National President of Mala Mahanadu and Chairman of the Mala Praja Sangha JAC, emphasized the need for district-wide review meetings across Telangana and Andhra Pradesh to raise awareness about the Supreme Court's decision on SC classification. "We must ensure that every member of the Mala community, from students to politicians, is aware of the implications of this verdict. It is imperative that we come together and fight against this classification," he urged.

Legal battle against SC Classification

Eminent cardiologist Dr. MF Gopinath and JAC Vice Chairman Gopoji Ramesh Babu echoed the call to build social movements by also focusing on legal avenues. "Our battle is not just social but also legal. We need to challenge this verdict in the courts while simultaneously mobilizing our community to stand united against this unjust classification," Dr. Gopinath said.

Engagement of political and intellectual leaders

Mala Mahanadu State President Manne Sridhar Rao called for active participation from Mala intellectuals, IAS and IPS officers, and elected representatives including MLAs, MPs, MLCs, and Ministers. "Political parties seeking to divide the SCs must be opposed. It is crucial that leaders from all walks of life respond to this challenge and stand with the Mala community in this struggle," Rao said.

Widespread participation and support

The meeting saw the participation of key figures such as Perumal Srinivas, President of People's Education Society, Janaki Ramulu, Jangam Karunakar, and district leaders like Mala Mahanadu Suryapet District President Ashoda Ravi and Suryapet District Women President Pittala Bhagyamma. Activists from various Mala organizations, including Katta Saidulu, Prakash, Krishna, Katla Murali, and Samata Sanika Dal Maha Suman, also attended, reflecting the broad-based support for the movement.

The leaders concluded the meeting by calling for continued efforts to unite the community and resist any attempts to fragment the SC reservations, reinforcing the importance of solidarity and collective action in their ongoing struggle.

Article online:
https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-24824/intellectuals-call-for-social-movements-against-sc-classification.html

Editorial office and responsibility:
V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDStV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Paul J Babu D

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Paul J Babu D

Editorial program service of General News Agency:
UPA United Press Agency LTD
483 Green Lanes
UK, London N13NV 4BS
contact (at) unitedpressagency.com
Official Federal Reg. No. 7442619