Beat: News

Missing Vulnerable People

Lily and Jack Sullivan

New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, 04.05.2025, 17:00 Time

USPA NEWS - The search for missing children Lily and Jack Sullivan is ongoing. The Nova Scotia RCMP is asking for the public's assistance in locating six-year-old Lily and four-year-old Jack. They were last seen May 1, on Gairloch Road in Lansdown Station, Pictou County. Lily has shoulder-length light brown hair with bangs. She might be wearing a pink sweater, pink pants and pink boots. Jack has short blondish hair. He's wearing blue dinosaur boots.

BREAKING NEWS RELEASE
"Pictou County District RCMP is asking for the public's assistance in locating six-year-old Lily Sullivan and four-year-old Jack Sullivan. They were last seen Friday morning, May 1, on Gairloch Rd. in LansdownStation, Pictou County.

Lily Sullivan has shoulder-length light brown hair with bangs. She might be wearing a pink sweater, pink pants, and pink boots.

Jack Sullivan has short blondish hair. He’s wearing blue dinosaur boots. No other clothing description is available.

We ask that people spread the word through social media respectfully.

Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Lily Sullivan and Jack Sullivan is asked to contact Pictou County District RCMP at 902-485-4333. To remain anonymous, call Nova Scotia Crime Stoppers, toll-free, at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477), submit a secure web tip at www.crimestoppers.ns.ca, or use the P3 Tips app.

File #: 2025-580096"

Mother calls for amber alert as search continues for missing Pictou County children.
Their mother, Malehya Brooks-Murray, is urging officials to escalate the search, fearing her children may have been taken.
Brooks-Murray said in a social media post...
“I want an Amber Alert for my children! I want my babies home.

Halifax radio station, Q104 posted this update update: "The search efforts are ongoing today in Pictou County for missing children Lily and Jack Sullivan.
The searches went on through Saturday night, as they had on Friday night as well. Ground search and rescue team members and officers who were on scene overnight have been relieved by new volunteers and officers from agencies involved to allow for refreshed searches to continue as necessary"

EMERGENCY ALERT
ALERTE D'URGENCE
"Missing Vulnerable People: Lily and Jack Sullivan Lansdowne Station, Nova Scotia The Nova Scotia RCMP is asking for the public's assistance in locating six-year-old Lily and four-year-old Jack. They were last seen

May 1, on Gairloch Road in Lansdowne Station, Pictou County. Lily has shoulder-length light brown hair with bangs. She might be wearing a pink sweater, pink pants and pink boots. Jack has short blondish hair. He's wearing blue dinosaur boots. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Lily and Jack is asked to call 902-485-4333 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477)."

Statement found on the RCMP website says,
"There is a multi-agency response currently on the ground in Pictou County. It includes resources from ground search and rescue teams from around the province who are collaborating to ensure resources and teams are available on an ongoing basis. Other resources and teams include the Civil Air Search and Rescue Association (CASARA), Department of Natural Resources Air Services, and several RCMP units, including RCMP Police Dog Services, RCMP Remotely Piloted Aircraft Systems (drones) operators, and others. Additionally, the RCMP issued a vulnerable missing person alert for Pictou County."

On Saturday, Premier Tim Houston released a statement,
"People in Pictou County and across Nova Scotia are praying for a positive outcome for two missing children, During this time of worry, please know that our first responders and volunteers are working tirelessly during this 24/7 operation."

Premier Tim Houston went on to say ,"This was the first assignment for the Nova Scotia Guard, a volunteer- led program created by the government to assist during a crisis or disaster. They stepped up immediately following the call to action. Guard volunteers are working in shifts to help with food distribution, overnight protection of equipment and parking and directions assistance for first responders."

Article online:
https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-25607/missing-vulnerable-people.html

Editorial office and responsibility:
V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDStV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Brian Teepell USPA 24 News

Exemption from liability:
The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Brian Teepell USPA 24 News

Editorial program service of General News Agency:
UPA United Press Agency LTD
483 Green Lanes

UK, London N13NV 4BS
contact (at) unitedpressagency.com
Official Federal Reg. No. 7442619