International Recognition for a Lifetime of Service to Humanity
The “Civis Mundi Sum” medal, established by IHRC in 2021, is one of the highest honours granted to individuals, institutions, and organizations for outstanding achievements in the protection of human rights, the advancement of humanism, intercultural dialogue, and for maintaining the highest professional standards in health, science, and culture.

This distinction symbolises honour, prestige, and international respect for those whose lives and work help build a better world.
